New Business

- Todd S H&I – would like to propose new literature-$300 per quarter; Barcy states Columbus area does something similar and they do a taco fund raiser for literature for H and I, Todd S stated we discussed a fund raiser /speaker jam, Carey H states that Hanbd I is what we do. Also, that there is a need for this. Jeanette states that we are revising the new policy, and wondering if there is a budget for H and I. Blake reports there was something updated in new policy, also that he doesn't know if 1200 1200 a year would be feasible. Possibly supporting the fundraiser financially, Justin asks are we the member buying literature to give to the people in the institutions , Mattie reports- in Columbus they give $750 2x a year for literature. He also said he doesn't see anything in our new policy about a budget. becaus eof drugs being brought in through mail/books we may have to have it shipped through amazon and that iut would be double the price. Chad to sum up; is to propose that Todd and bob get together to determine more specifics.
 - o Motion was made for $400 for literature and postage to send to inmates
 - 18 for
 - 2 abstain
 - 0 against
- Carey reported that they need experience, strength and hope from Lancaster. She reported they need help. Chad suggested condensing the meetings so that there's enough people to help support the meetings. They need clean time and sponsors. Chad suggested home groups take concerns back to their home group. Blake suggested getting speakers to come share at the meetings to bring experience, strength and hope. Joel suggested posting in the Meascna page for support. Mallory reported she has been going to the meetings and she is thankful that they are showing up. Mattie reported as an outreach for the region and he believes this is an outreach area. Barcy reported outreach used to get a group of addicts together to attend the meetings. She also suggested to get on FB groups and post for help.

- Brandon questioned about Coshocton meeting. Chad asked for vote to remove A blank Page meeting from schedule.
 - 19 for
 - 1 abstain

We Thrive will remain on the schedule

- Justin suggested that everyone go back to their home group and remind them the importance of having the meeting regardless of holidays. Discussed ways to communicate with one another for support or changes in meetings. Brandon brought up having mini marathon meetings for the holidays.
- Justin requested having speaker speak at the same time of the meeting if held at the space where a meeting is held.
- Discussed policy. Gave hard deadline for Saturday for revisions.

Open Forum

Hello friends, the activities committee has been preparing for the March St. Patrick's Day event, which will be held in Lancaster. Everyone is encouraged to bring a side dish or dessert. The doors open at 3pm but if anyone would like to help set-up, we will be there at 1:30pm.

I have procrastinated and getting my name put on the PNC Activities account, but the process should be completed next week. We have a balance of $2113.65 There was a charge of $110 that is listed as a Sam's Club renewal and I have talked to the bank about that and was told that it was a legit debit. I have talked to Kaitie O and she reports that the Activities account does not have a Sam's Club membership.

Today I have written a check for $113.65 to the area with Katie's signature.

The next event will be the free summer function and we are looking for suggestions on a venue.

Also, there is an opening on the Activities committee as (little) Katy has resigned. We think Katy for all of her service.

And loving service, Angel M
