Open Forum

- Angel asked about GSRs receiving the email for signups for the Holiday event.
- Jerry wanted to circle back to the teen group as a closed teen meeting to protect the teens.
- Justin asked what we can do to fill more area service positions. Blake suggested sponsorship.
- Ken reported that this is the third time he has heard about rumors. Outreach reported that he has to be reactive when things are issues. Barcy reported that she understood that the outreach should be supportive and not preventative. Katie reported that there seems to be discrepancies with these situations and we are working to bridge the responsibilities of the positions.

The Holiday Event was a great success. There were approximately 100 people in attendance. The message was carried by Stephanie C from MOASCNA. It cost $658.35 to put on the function; this includes food, decorations, and entertainment. Games were added to the fellowshiping this year which was enjoyed by many. $1052.00 was raised; raffle $311, donations on day of event $150, auction $391, and donation from The Real Deal Men's group $200. Reimbursements have been made to: William V $184.66, George R $137.64, Mattie S $40.00 for their out of pocket expenditures. Literature and merchandise has yet to be paid but will be paid as soon as a total is received from the literature/merchandise committee. After all financial obligations were met, there was a deposit of $689.70 into the activities account which left a balance of $2391.55 After the final bill to literature/merchandise is paid, a final account balance can be reported any money in the account above the prudent reserve of $2000 will be donated to area.

What is upcoming

The activities committee will be meeting to vote on the next committee member and the St Patrick's Day event planning is under way.

Thank you for your continued support!
In loving service, Angel M
